Los artículos de esta antología indagan en el concepto de etnicidad en América Latina mediante perspectivas interdisciplinarias. Enfocan la historia del concepto, su significado en diferentes sociedades desde el siglo XIX, así como en los recientes procesos de movilización étnica, por ejemplo, la etnización de la arena política y la instrumentalización de la etnicidad en el contexto de las políticas de identidad, particularmente a partir de la década de 1990. Este último período es especialmente importante en la medida en que indígenas y afrodescendientes se organizan a una escala más global, adquieren derechos y modifican las sociedades y sus marcos políticos
