THE MAKING OF INDIA: GAMECHANGING TRANSITIONS Akhilesh Tilotia

The Making of India chronicles the journey of India's demographic dividend through the varied transitions taking place in the economy. The forces shaping India's job market, its cities, its industry and agriculture and its equation with the rest of the world come from expected and unexpected places heralding massive opportunities and challenges for citizens, government and investors.

Thought-provoking and incisive, this insightful volume takes an in-depth look at the social, political and economic transformation we are witnessing in India today, and sets out to examine the unexpected, challenging but rewarding transitions that we as a nation will undergo in the years to come. It is the story of India as it is being made – and whether you are an investor, citizen or government representative you are sure to find yourself in many of these transitions.
