La finanza pubblica italiana: Rapporto 2011 (Studi e ricerche) (Italian Edition) Maria Cecilia Guerra, Alberto Zanardi

Il Rapporto 2011 pone sotto osservazione critica le politiche pubbliche adottate dal governo nel corso del 2010 e nei primi mesi del 2011 con riferimento ai più rilevanti ambiti di intervento: conti pubblici, fisco, previdenza, politiche per il lavoro e assistenza, sanità, finanza decentrata e servizi di pubblica utilità. Due approfondimenti specifici sono dedicati rispettivamente all'analisi dei pro e contro di fiscal rules dirette al controllo della spesa pubblica, e ai problemi del finanziamento dell'università anche alla luce della riforma recentemente introdotta. Il quadro complessivo che ne emerge evidenzia come le politiche pubbliche nazionali siano sostanzialmente prive della spinta innovativa necessaria per sostenere la ripresa e, al contempo, garantire il rispetto dei vincoli esterni di finanza pubblica.
