Secret Agent of God Eileen Slovak

Janice Morrison has a special gift, even if it sometimes feels more like a punishment. She has prophetic visions, an ability that makes her very valuable to certain people.

Just how valuable becomes clear when a terrorist cell kidnaps Janice on her way to her daughter's daycare. The leader of the cell—a suave, dangerous man Janice nicknames English—believes he can use Janice's ability to time successful terrorist attacks. To coerce the frightened but defiant woman, English threatens to harm Janice's friends and family.

What follows is a tense game of wits between captive and captor, as Janice attempts to avoid contributing to a terrorist attack on US soil while keeping friends and family safe.

Eileen Slovak blends the dangerous world of terrorism with the paranormal in a fast-paced and suspenseful thriller. Janice's visions will have horrific consequences unless she learns to be a Secret Agent of God.
