Hydro-Geomorphology, Erosion and Sedimentation (IAHS Benchmark Papers in Hydrology Series)

Michael J. Kirkby

In this Benchmark Series volume, Kirkby presents a systematic analysis of the relationships between hydrology and geomorphology with commentaries on the papers that have been most influential in the development of research at the hydrology/geomorphology interface. Thirty-seven papers are reprinted in full or in part, the majority published pre-1970, including early contributions by Fisher (1866), Davison (1889) and Gilbert (1909), and seminal papers by Hack, Strahler, Wolman & Miller, and Melton, among others.

The International Association of Hydrological Sciences is the world's premier member-based organization promoting the study and practice of Hydrology. Our books are authored, edited and produced at the highest level of quality, with the most current and thorough research.

Our publications and our work advance the science and the professional practice of Hydrology in a variety of Science and Engineering fields around the world.

The areas that we publish in include:

- Ground water
- Surface water
- Snow and ice hydrology
- Drought and desertification
- Runoff modelling
- Watershed
- Remote sensing
- Water quality
- Water resources and management
- Ecohydrology/hydro-ecology
- Erosion and sediment
- Tracer hydrology
