At 14,500km long, Highway 1 is among the longest highways in the world. The route, which circumnavigates the complete length of Australia, is an epic adventure that passes through some of the most spectacular places in the country, from the Nullarbor to the Kimberley. When attempting this drive, you need to be well prepared, from planning your accommodation (Are you going to camp? Bring a caravan? Stay in hotels?) to being aware of where you can stop along the route. Explore Australia's Highway 1 lists all the major towns along (or just off) the highway in each state and territory, along with what you can do, where you can eat and stay, and what's nearby each town.
