European Yearbook of Disability Law: Volume 4

The European Yearbook of Disability Law is part of the ongoing research program of the Maastricht Center for Human Rights of Maastricht University and the Center for Disability Law and Policy of the National University of Ireland Galway. The Yearbook reviews the significant developments at the European level regarding disability law and policy. It contains a series of articles on current challenges and developments from senior analysts and academics working in the field. It provides critical insight in the evolution of European disability law and policy and offers analyses of pressing challenges in a broad range of fields. The core of the Yearbook consists of a review of the preceding year's significant events, as well as policy and legal developments within the institutions of the European Union. It reviews major EU policy developments, other publications, and legislative proposals, as well as case law from the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights. (Series: European Yearbook of Disability Law - Vol. 4)
