Liza Stephens couldn't be more delighted to be rescued by a truly nice guy--until she discovered his real identity. Suddenly, he's not exactly the enemy, but he's certainly not... well, she can't be sure what he is. How can she deal with a new boss who's so hard to work for but so fun to play with? Lee Hayden can't figure out what to do with this spirited country gal. She's everything he wants and needs, but the vexing woman simply won't think straight. If only she'd give up farming and return to the office, he'd be waiting with arms open wide. A farmer's daughter and a big city lawyer are as different as two people can be, but they discover that opposites attract. Will God help them trample the seeds of doubt and overcome their differences?
