The Christian life is all about living according to the Gospel. Once God opens our eyes to its Truth, we quickly learn to love it, and the more we learn to love it, then the more we love the Savior who is it (John 14:6), then the more we love the Church, which is the pillar and buttress of it (1 Timothy 3:15), then the more we will love the Lost who are the beneficiary of it as much as we ever were, and still are - which then causes us to love it more, and so on and so on! We never complete the task, and it never gets old. Any who dare to walk this journey, never grow tired of it!
