World Breads: From Pain de Campagne to Paratha (Small Book of Good Taste) Paul Gayler

This book brings the skill of the traditional bread makers of the world within reach of everyone, and you will find that baking your own bread is unexpectedly easy. Paul Gayler has collected delicious recipes for a wide selection of traditional breads from Europe, Asia, North Africa and North America – some familiar like Ciabatta, Classic Baguette and Naan, and some less so, such as Broa from Portugal, and some of Paul's own invention, such as Asian style Focaccia. Whatever your preference you will find a bread here to suit your meal, and also discover the enormous pleasure in serving your own homemade bread.
